

11-12 yr olds – Practice Constitution Bee Name: _____

Assignment #1 – Make sure that you are scoring in the 90% range on all 6 regular quizzes and on the Bonus Questions before moving on to this Practice Constitution Bee.

Assignment #2 – Print out and take this Practice Constitution Bee and time yourself. Print out and have your parent/guardian take this Practice Constitution Bee and time themselves.

a) I corrected my child's work on the Practice Constitution Bee below and he/she got _____ / 366 points. It took him/her _____ minutes to complete.

(Parent/Guardian signature)

b) I corrected my parent's/guardian's work on the Practice Constitution Bee below and he/she got _____ / 366 points. It took him/her _____ minutes to complete.

(Student signature)

Questions from the Practice Constitution Bee will be very similar to questions on the final online Constitution Bee except questions on the final online Constitution Bee will be randomized. The final Bee will also be timed. The exact time limit and other details will be announced before the final online Bee in plenty of time to be sure you are prepared. Scoring on the Practice Bee will be similar to scoring on the final Bee. Unless otherwise noted, each question is worth 1 point and on questions with multiple parts (i.e. a, b, c) each part will be worth 1 point. Memorization of clauses and quotes will be worth 1 point per blank so there is heavy weight to memorization. Total points will be given for each question at the end in parentheses.

1) The _____ makes the _____ that _____ we, the _____, from the _____ or any other person _____ our _____ from _____. (8)

2) How many articles are there in the Constitution?

3) Which branch of government does Article I address?

4) Which branch of government does Article II address?

5) Which branch of government does Article III address?

- 6) Which topic does Article IV address?
- 7) Which topic does Article V address?
- 8) Which topic does Article VI address?
- 9) Which topic does Article VII address?
- 10) How do you identify a clause in the Constitution?
- 11) Name the 5 Clauses Everyone Should Know
- 12) What is the Constitutional reference of the Supremacy Clause?
- 13) What is the Constitutional reference of the General Welfare Clause?
- 14) What is the Constitutional reference of the Necessary and Proper Clause?
- 15) What is the Constitutional reference of the Interstate Commerce Clause?
- 16) What is the Constitutional reference of Treaty Law?
- 17) Name the 5 Clauses Everyone Should Know (in order of their acronym) along with the Constitutional reference for each (5)
- 18) "The President shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States" is the actual text from which article in the Constitution?
- 19) "In all the other cases before mentioned, the supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction" is the actual text from which article in the Constitution?"
- 20) "[Amendments] shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this Constitution" is actual text from which article in the Constitution?
- 21) "The ratification of the conventions of nine states, shall be sufficient for the establishment of this Constitution between the states so ratifying the same" is the actual text from which article in the Constitution?
- 22) Define the term "Supreme": The _____ level of _____ or _____ (1)
- 23) Define the term "Pursue": To _____
- 24) If a car owner and a mechanic shop owner have a disagreement over the price of the service offered, who wins?
- 25) What does this car analogy teach us about the supremacy clause? It is not the mechanic shop (the _____) nor the car owner (the _____ or the _____) who are in charge (_____). What is in charge is the contract (the _____) made between them. (6)

- 26) The supremacy clause says what 2 things are supreme? (1)
- 27) a) Are all laws of the United States the supreme law of the land? b) Explain which are and which are not (2)
- 28) The laws of the United States are also known as?:
- 29) How can you know if a federal law is “made in pursuance” of the Constitution?
- 30) a) If a skinny boy wants to become a buff man what condition must he meet? b) If a federal law wants to become the supreme law of the land, what condition must it meet? (2)
- 31) Fill in the blanks of the Supremacy Clause: “This _____, and the _____ of the _____ which _____ in _____ thereof ... shall be the _____” (13)
- 32) Define the term “Condition”:
- 33) a) Can a federal law call for the formation of a Navy? b) Explain (2)
- 34) a) If a mechanic shop wants to charge $3000 and a car owner only wants to pay $1000 why not just split the difference at $2000? b) What should the price be? (2)
- 35) Federal law is always supreme over state law. a) True or False b) Explain (2)
- 36) a) Can a federal law tell state patrolmen what type of vehicle they will drive? b) Who is that decision reserved to? c) How do we know that? (3)
- 37) Explain why the placing of a condition on the words, “the laws of the United States”, is so critical to understanding the supremacy clause?
- 38) Write from memory the words of the Supremacy Clause (24)
- 39) a) If a car owner authorizes a mechanic shop to make repairs and to service his car does that mean the mechanic can do whatever repairs and services he wants? b) Why or why not? (2)
- 40) What does this car analogy teach us about the general welfare clause? The car owner (the _____ or the _____) only authorized the mechanic shop (the _____ or the _____) to do those repairs and services (to _____) listed in the contract (the _____) not just whatever repairs and services seem to be generally good to the shop. (8)
- 41) If a mechanic takes the initiative to turn your old car into a nice new Ferrari there are at least two things that are wrong with doing so. Name the two. (1)

42) a) Which repairs and services are listed on a contract?: 1) those the mechanic is authorized to do, or 2) those he is not authorized to do? b) If a repair isn't listed on the contract, what can the mechanic assume about that repair? (2)

43) The General Welfare Clause is based on this idea: "If it's not _____, you _____ do it" (1)

44) The general welfare powers are listed in which article, section and clauses? Article __, Section __, Clauses 2-9, 17 (1)

45) The common defense powers are listed in which article, section and clauses? Article I, Section 8, Clauses ____ - ____ (1)

46) The 10th amendment says, "The powers not _____ to the United States by the _____... are reserved to the States respectively, or to the _____" (3)

47) Which interpretation of the general welfare clause supports the principle of self-government? a) Government decides for the people what is good for them b) People decide for themselves what is right (1)

48) Fill in the blanks of the General Welfare Clause: "The _____ shall have _____ to ... _____ for the _____ and _____" (7)

49) How does the principle of self-government apply to the General Welfare clause?

50) Fill in the blanks of Thomas Jefferson's quote regarding general welfare: "_____ has not _____ powers to _____ for the general welfare, but only those _____." (5)

51) Complete Daniel Webster's quote: "The _____ was made to _____ the _____ against the dangers of _____." (5)

52) a) When Johnny's mom said he can go outside and play anywhere inside the fenced yard, why is his excuse not justified when he's caught playing on the swings across the street by telling her, "You never specifically said I couldn't cross the street and play on the swings!" b) Apply this analogy to the General Welfare clause (2)

53) Write from memory the words of the General Welfare Clause (14)

54) a) If you authorize your mechanic shop to change out your brake pads – and to only do that one thing – is it all right for him to also take off your wheel? b) Explain (2)

55) How does this analogy apply to the necessary and proper clause? The mechanic shop (the _____ or the _____) can only do those things (_____ _____) which are necessary and proper in order to carry out the specific thing (the _____) listed in the contract (the _____) that the car owner (the _____ or the _____) have authorized to be done (9)

56) If your mechanic claims that in order for you to be happy it is necessary and proper that he cut a sunroof in your car and that you authorized it, how would you respond?

57) What is the rule that should be used to determine whether a law is necessary and proper? A law is necessary and proper only if (1)

58) The words from the necessary and proper clause, “for carrying into execution the foregoing powers” are referring to what powers?

59) Why is the phrase “for carrying into execution the foregoing powers” so critical to the principle of self- government? Because it limits _____ to only do those things that can be _____ to Article __, Section __ powers which we, the people, _____ them to do for us. We _____ the _____ to act for us. They don’t _____ themselves to _____ what they will do for us. (11)

60) a) Is an implied power: i) directly given and listed, or ii) indirectly suggested. b) Are there any powers granted to Congress that aren’t specifically listed in Article I, Section 8? (2)

61) Explain how the federal government is justified in building a mint when the power to do so was not specifically given in Article I, Section 8?

62) Why is the necessary and proper clause often referred to as the elastic clause?

63) Fill in the blanks from the necessary and proper clause: The _____ shall have power to ... _____ all _____ which shall be _____ and _____ for _____ into _____ the _____ ” (9)

64) If it’s necessary to have money set aside for retirement and it’s proper that people have insurance: a) Why shouldn’t the government do so? b) Why can’t the government do so? (2)

65) Article I, Section 8 can be viewed as a sandwich. a) Identify the name and reference of the clauses of the top and bottom pieces of bread b) Identify the reference of the clauses of the meat. c) Explain what the meat is. (3)

66) Write from memory the words of the Necessary and Proper Clause (22)

67) a) Interstate means: _____ states. Intrastate means _____ of a state. Interpersonal means: _____ people. Intrapersonal means: _____ of a person. b) Explain why understanding what “interstate” means is so important to understanding the “interstate” commerce clause. Answer: The Interstate Commerce Clause only applies to buying and selling that _____ . It doesn’t apply to buying and selling _____ . (11)

68) If you would like to sell your car but the buyer and you can’t come to agreement on how well it runs: a) To whom can you take the car b) What can they do? (2)

69) What does this car analogy teach us about the interstate commerce clause? The mechanic shop (the _____ or the _____) can run the standardized test (to _____ or to _____) but they can't control the buyer or the seller (the _____) in decisions about the buying and selling of the car (_____). (9)

70) Choose the correct definition for "Regulate": a) to make all decisions about b) to set a standard for.

71) a) Can states set standards over each other? b) Does the interstate commerce clause give Congress power to regulate – or to set a standard – over the states? (2)

72) a) (True or False) Before the interstate commerce clause, states could choose to put any amount of fees on other states. b) The Interstate Commerce Clause allowed who to stop states from putting fees on each other? (2)

73) Fill in the blanks from a quote by James Monroe regarding the interstate commerce clause: "A power . . . to _____ any [fees] on the trade _____ the States was the _____ power granted." (3)

74) Fill in the blank in the modernized wording of Article I, Section 9, Clause 6: "No trucks or ships that are going to or from a state can be _____ to pay _____ just for being in that state." (2)

75) Choose the correct definition for "among the several states": a) between the states b) between the states, inside each state, between the people and with each person.

76) Fill in the blanks from the interstate commerce clause: "The _____ shall have _____ to ... _____ commerce _____ the several _____" (5)

77) The expanded version of the Interstate Commerce clause – Congress has power to control all buying and selling that happens inside the state – is, a) justified or not justified in the Constitution? b) Explain c) What effect does the expanded version have on states? (3)

78) a) What principle is being broken when a bureaucrat in Washington D.C. tells a farmer in Wyoming what he can and cannot do on his farm? b) Explain (2)

79) Write from memory the words of the Interstate Commerce Clause (12)

80) Define the term "Treaty": A formal _____ between two or more _____ (1)

81) a) Is it all right for your mechanic shop to charge you for an engine overhaul when all you want is an oil change on your car? b) If your mechanic shop says they have to charge you for an engine overhaul because of an agreement they signed with other mechanic shops, how would you respond? (Fill in the blank) What you do with my _____ is controlled by the _____ you and I make not by an _____ you make with other _____. (6)

82) What does this car shop analogy teach us about the treaty law clause? (Fill in the blank) Other mechanic shops (other _____) and their agreements (_____) cannot control a car owner's (the _____ or the _____) contract (the _____) with his own mechanic shop (the _____). (7)

83) a) If a skinny boy wants to become a buff man what condition must he meet? b) If a treaty wants to become the supreme law of the land it must be made “ _____ ” (7)

84) a) Are all treaties the supreme law of the land? b) Is a treaty supreme over the Constitution? c) Explain. (Fill in the blank) If a _____ and the _____ conflict, the _____ wins since _____ have to be made _____ the _____ of the United _____ and the _____ tells us what powers are _____ the _____ of the United States. (10)

85) Treaties deal with how our federal government (the United States) interacts with: (choose one) a) the people in our nation b) other nations

86) Suppose a gun control treaty were agreed upon by the United States and the United Nations. Would such a treaty: a) be the supreme law of the land? b) Why or why not? (2)

87) a) Can a treaty between the United States and the United Nations commit us to declaring war? b) Why or why not? (2)

88) a) Can a treaty between the United States and Mexico to protect their shared border against invasion be the supreme law of the land? b) Why or why not? (2)

89) Fill in the blanks from the treaty law clause: “All _____ made, or which _____ be _____, _____ the _____ of the _____, shall be the _____ of the _____.” (10)

90) Break down the phrase “under the authority of the United States” by defining the underlined terms (3)

91) Explain why understanding the condition attached to treaties is essential to understanding the treaty law clause.

92) Write from memory the words of the Treaty Law Clause (23)

93) Choose your favorite clause and in 250 words or less explain why you think it is so important today. (use another piece of paper and/or feel free to type your response if you prefer)

1) Constitution, rules, protect, people, government, taking, freedom, us 2) 7 3) Legislative 4) Executive 5) Judicial 6) States 7) Amendments 8) Supremacy 9) Ratification 10) new paragraph, indentation 11) Supremacy, General Welfare, Necessary and Proper, Interstate Commerce, Treaty Law 12) Article VI, Clause 2 13) Article I, Section 8, Clause 1 14) Article I, Section 8, Clause 18 15) Article I, Section 8, Clause 3 16) Article VI, Clause 2 17) Supremacy Clause (Article VI, Clause 2), Treaty Law Clause (Article VI, Clause 2), Interstate Commerce Clause (Article I, Section 8, Clause 3), Necessary and Proper Clause (Article I, Section 8, Clause 18), General Welfare Clause (Article I, Section 8, Clause 1) 18) Article II 19) Article III 20) Article V 21) Article VII 22) highest, power, authority 23) follow 24) It is “what” wins that matters. The contract they both agreed to wins 25) federal government; people; states; supreme; Constitution 26) The Constitution; The Laws of the United States that pursue the Constitution 27) No b) Only those laws that are made in pursuance of the Constitution are supreme. If a federal law violates or contradicts the Constitution it is not the supreme law of the land 28) federal laws 29) You can point to the specific words in the Constitution that grant power to make that law. 30) a) He must lift weights b) it must follow or be made in pursuance of the Constitution 31) Constitution, laws, United States, shall be made, pursuance, supreme law of the land. 32) a requirement that must be met first 33) a) yes b) because the power to do so can be found in Article I, Section 8, Clause 13 of the Constitution 34) a) because neither party will be happy b) The price on the contract 35) a) false b) Neither federal law nor state law is always supreme. The Constitution is supreme and it defines which entity is given which powers 36) a) no b) the states c) The 10th amendment says that the powers not specifically given to the federal government are reserved to the states 37) Without this condition, federal laws would not be restrained by anything. But with this condition, federal laws are restrained and put under submission to the Constitution and its rule of law 38) “This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land. 39) a) No. b) The mechanic can only make the repairs and perform the services specifically listed on the contract 40) people; states; federal government; Congress; make laws; Constitution 41) You can’t afford it and you didn’t authorize it 42) a) 1- Those the mechanic is authorized to do b) he is not authorized to do it 43) listed; can’t 44) I, 8 45) 10-16 46) delegated; Constitution; people 47) b 48) The Congress shall have power to provide for the common defense and general welfare 49) Self-government claims the people create government and authorize them to do certain things for them. If government gets to decide what general welfare means, then they govern over people and self-government is destroyed 50) Congress, unlimited; provide, specifically enumerated 51) Constitution; guard; people; good intentions 52) a) Because when she gave him permission to play anywhere within the fenced yard it excluded playing anywhere else, including crossing the street to play on the swings. She didn't have to tell him everywhere he couldn't play. All she had to tell him was the only place he could play was within the fenced yard. b) the Constitution defines what the federal government can do but it does not list everything that can't be done just like Johnny's mom listed what he could do (stay in the yard) without having to list everything he couldn't do (cross the street to play on swings) 53) “The Congress shall have power to provide for the common defense and general welfare.” 54) a) Yes. b) In order to change your brake pads (which you have authorized him to do in the contract) it is necessary and proper to take off your wheel 55) Federal government; Congress; make laws; power; Constitution; people; states 56) I only authorized you to do those things which were necessary and proper in order to make the repairs listed on the contract which was to change out my brake pads and putting a sunroof in my car has nothing to do with changing out my brake pads 57) it is needed in order to carry out a specific power given to the federal government as listed in Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution. 58) Article I, Section 8, Clauses 2-17 59) Congress; directly tied; I; 8; specifically authorized; authorize; government; authorize; decide. 60) a) (ii) indirectly suggested b) Yes 61) Although building a mint isn't a directly listed power, coining money is (Art I, Sec 8, Cl 5) so when the people directly authorized Congress to coin money they indirectly authorized Congress to build a mint. 62) It can be stretched to give powers not specifically listed in the Constitution 63) The Congress shall have power to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers. 64) a) The only way for government to provide insurance and retirement for people is to forcefully take money from some (through taxes) and give it to others. b) The power to provide insurance and retirement are not listed in the Constitution as powers the people/states gave to the federal government 65) a) top – general welfare clause (Art. I, Sec. 8, Cl 1); bottom – necessary and proper clause (Art I, Sec 8, Cl 18) b) meat – Art. 1 Sec 8, Clauses 2-17 c) The specific powers that both the general welfare clause and the necessary and proper clause refer to 66) “The Congress shall have power to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers” 67) a) between (across); inside; between (across); inside b) crosses state lines; inside of a state 68) a) A mechanic shop b) run a standardized test on the car 69) federal government or Congress; regulate or set a standard; states; goods and services 70) b 71) a) No b) Yes 72) a) True b) Congress (federal government) 73) prevent; between; only 74) forced; fees 75) a) 76) The Congress shall have power to regulate commerce among the several states. 77) a) not justified b) Such power was never given by the states to the federal government c) It destroys the states sovereignty – or power over its own affairs 78) a) self-government b) the interstate commerce clause gave power to the federal government to prevent states from putting fees on each other. It didn't give power to the federal government to decide anything in relation to an individual such as a farmer 79) “The Congress shall have power to regulate commerce among the several states.” 80) agreement; nations 81) a) no b) car; contract; agreement; mechanic shops 82) Nations; treaties; people; states; Constitution; federal government) 83) a) He must lift weights b) under the authority of the United States 84) a) No b) No c) treaty; Constitution; Constitution; treaties; under; authority; States; Constitution; under; authority 85) b) other nations 86) a) no b) it violates the 2nd amendment in the Constitution 87) a) No b) The Constitution says only Congress can declare war. Treaties don't declare war 88) a) Yes b) The Constitution gives power to the United States to protect against invasion so a treaty to protect against invasion is under the authority of the United States 89) All treaties made or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land 90) under – within the limits of; authority – power given to do certain things; the United States – the federal government 91) The condition “under the authority of the United States” restrains treaties from doing things that are outside the powers given the federal government by the people as specified in the Constitution. 92) “All treaties made or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land.” 93) Answers will vary but should be well thought out since they will be worth a very large number of points